

Fall 2011 Social Justice Film Series

presents

“WHITE LIKE THE MOON”

Written and Directed by Marina Gonzalez Palmier

Synopsis: WHITE LIKE THE MOON is the story of a 13 year-old Mexican-American girl's struggle for identity when her mother forces her to bleach her skin white in order to fit into the "Anglo" society of San Antonio, Texas, in the late 1950s. (Run Time: 23 minutes)

Wednesday, September 28th, 2011

12:00 pm - Rm 104 Allen House

07:30 pm - Rm 216 Living/Learning (L/L) Commons

A group discussion on themes and issues follows each screening. Total program to not exceed one hour.

Free and open to all UVM students, faculty, and staff.

The 2011 Social Justice Film Series is co-sponsored by the Chief Diversity Officer

Save the Dates: Other upcoming films in the Fall Series...

Wednesday, October 12, 2011— “Out in the Silence”

Wednesday, November 2, 2011— “Silences”

Wednesday, November 30, 2011— “In the Matter of Cha Jung Hee”

The University of Vermont

Center for Cultural Pluralism

About us: Established in 1999 at the Allen House, the Center for Cultural Pluralism (CCP) is dedicated to helping UVM achieve its core mission to provide quality multicultural education in order to equip faculty, staff and students with the competencies necessary to function in a diverse world. Focusing on the complex intersections of issues of culture and social justice, the Center offers a unique “Cultural Hub” where individuals and organizations working on behalf of cultural diversity and social justice issues can collaborate and coalesce.

Allen House, 461 Main Street, Burlington VT 05405 • (802) 656-9384 • www.uvm.edu/~ccpvm