

DIVIDED WE FALL

AMERICANS IN THE AFTERMATH

SPRING 2012 SOCIAL JUSTICE FILM SERIES

About the film: After a turbaned Sikh man is brutally murdered in the aftermath of September 11, 2001, a young woman took off around the country following hate crimes against the Sikh American community- her community-with a video camera and a streak of bravery. What results is a powerful account of untold stories on "being American" still front and center even 10 years later.

date

WEDNESDAY
04/11/12

Time & Location:

12:00 PM: 104 ALLEN HOUSE
07:30 PM: 216 LIVING/LEARNING

FREE. Open to UVM faculty, staff, students.
Co-sponsored by the Chief Diversity Officer.
A Center for Cultural Pluralism Program.