

A film by Yun Suh

City of Borders

Love and consequences at Jerusalem's only gay bar

FALL 2012 SOCIAL JUSTICE FILM SERIES

About the film: City of Borders follows the daily lives of the Israeli bar owner and four Israeli and Palestinian patrons as they navigate the minefield of politics, religion, and discrimination to live and love openly despite the contradictions and complexity of their struggle.

This film presentation is collaboration with UVM Hillel

[A discussion of the themes follows the screening]

[Run time: 66 minutes. View trailer here:]

date

WEDNESDAY
09/19/12

Time & Location:

12:00 PM: 104 ALLEN HOUSE

07:30 PM: 315 LIVING/LEARNING

FREE. Open to UVM faculty, staff, students.
Co-sponsored by the Chief Diversity Officer.
A Center for Cultural Pluralism Program.