

Center for Cultural Pluralism

WEDNESDAY

JAN 29

7:30 PM

Rm 216 L/L COMMONS

Anomaly

A thought-provoking look at multiracial identity, Anomaly combines personal narratives with the larger drama of mixed race in American culture.

WEDNESDAY

FEB 19

7:30 PM

Rm 216 L/L COMMONS

One Drop Rule

The prevalent and often divisive issue of skin color in African American communities and culture is discussed in One Drop Rule.

Co-sponsored by BSU

WEDNESDAY

MAR 19

7:30 PM

Rm 216 L/L COMMONS

Somewhere Between

Exploring what it is like to come-of-age as a trans-racial adoptee in today's America, Somewhere Between tells the stories of four girls living in different parts of the U.S.

Co-sponsored by the Women's Center

WEDNESDAY

MAR 26

7:30 PM

Rm 216 L/L COMMONS

The Fall of Womenland

The Mosuo people, a small minority group in the Southwest of China, are one of the last remaining matriarchies in the world. The Fall of Womenland looks at their unique sexual culture.

Co-sponsored by the Women's Center

WEDNESDAY

APR 09

7:30 PM

Rm 216 L/L COMMONS

White Like Me

Exploring race and racism in the U.S, White Like Me looks through the lens of whiteness and white privilege, based on the work of anti-racist educator Tim Wise.

Co-sponsored by Allied Faces

Colorblind / Colorbind

SPRING 2014 SOCIAL JUSTICE FILM SERIES

FREE. Open to UVM faculty, staff and students.

Co-sponsored by the Vice President for Human Resources, Diversity & Multicultural Affairs.

Center for Cultural Pluralism, Allen House, 461 Main Street, Burlington, VT 05405. (802) 656-8833. ccpvm@uvm.edu. www.uvm.edu/~ccpvm