

Allen House Multicultural Art Gallery

Fall 2014

SEP 1 - SEP 19

Women's Sense of Space

Emy Takinami is a Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies major with a passion for ceramics. Her ceramic work conveys the marginalized sense of space that women are forced to take up in our modern day culture. This exhibit explores themes around female body image, sexuality and empowerment.

SEP 22 - OCT 10

A Flat Lander's Journey to Nepal

Julie Howk uses the art of photography to capture her love for nature and travel. Her most recent work, taken in 2013, exhibits her experience traveling from central Nepal to the upper region of Mustang Valley. This installation explores elements of globalization and cultural preservation.

Reception in Allen House
September 22, 4:30-6:00PM

OCT 13 - OCT 31

Trans Art Matters: A TIC Community Exhibit

Trans Art Matters is a multi-artist, mixed media exhibit that showcases the work of local trans artists and individuals. This exhibit is sponsored by the Translating Identity Conference (TIC) committee.

Reception in Allen House
October 31, 4:30-6:00PM

NOV 3 - NOV 21

In a Ghost's Arms

Sydney Triola dives into her grief and loss experience through personal sculpture and photography. This exhibit aims to look at the many different parts of the grief and loss process and how that is a continuous experience of Sydney's life.

Reception in Allen House
November 7, 4:30-6:00PM

GALLERY HOURS: MON - FRI, 9:00AM - 4:30PM | 461 MAIN STREET, BURLINGTON, VT 05405

The University of Vermont
Center for Cultural Pluralism

Co-sponsored by the Vice President for Human Resources, Diversity & Multicultural Affairs.
For more information or to request accommodations for the exhibit receptions, please call (802) 656-8833
or email ccp@uvm.edu | www.uvm.edu/~ccpuvm