How Do Changing NIH Policies Impact Me?

What you need to know about:

- Changes to Human Subjects Research and Clinical Trials requirements
- Transition to NIH Forms E

During the past year, the National Institutes of Health (NIH) has instituted new requirements for studies involving clinical trials, as well as new requirements and forms that go into effect for NIH applications deadlines on or after January 25, 2018. Representatives from the Office of the VP for Research, the Research Protections Office, and Sponsored Projects Administration will provide information about the significant changes to help you prepare for this transition and will answer your questions.
