

* A “suitable computer” is one which:

- is currently receiving updates from the vendor;
- supports full disk encryption; and
- is running current anti-malware defenses.

 “High-speed” internet access for these purposes would be 15Mbit/sec or faster.