

Organized by Sponsored Project Administration

National Research Administrator Day

Friday, September 23
8:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

If you help find funding, prepare and submit proposals, negotiate awards and subawards, manage sponsored project financials, or oversee human subject protocols and research compliance, join us on Friday, September 23 to celebrate research administrators at UVM.

Research Administrator Day is observed each year in September to recognize the invaluable contributions made by research administrators to the research enterprise.

Enjoy a breakfast hors d'oeuvres and buffet lunch, connect with other Research Administrators at UVM.

A hosted breakfast hors d'oeuvres & lunch, and panel discussions will provide opportunities to engage with others on campus about hot topics in research administration.
